

Our Account TEAM is Your TEAM

Broadus Whiteside, Account Manager

Broadus@afltexas.com

Since fall 2013, Broadus has worked at AFL. First in an administrative role and in early 2014 moved to his current role as account manager for key clients. He manages accounts in several industries as well as represents AFL outside of the DFW area.

Francis Curiel, VPQ/Nutritional Account Manager

Francis@afltexas.com

Francis Curiel, has over 18 year experience in the food industry, and has been instrumental in the growth and development of the Product Quality Department at AFL. For most of the 12 years Francis has worked for AFL she has managed the Vendor Product Quality Program with major restaurant chain clients. With her enthusiasm, prior experience in food manufacturing, expertise in restaurant vendor quality she is a perfect fit for her new role as Account Manager of Vendor Product Quality/Nutrition.

Kim Wesley, Nutrition Specialist

KWesley@afltexas.com

Kim Wesley, has been in nutrition for 12 years. She has an advanced degree in Food Science, with a research emphasis in frying and oils. In addition, her background includes teaching nutrition courses at a local community college, food manufacturing and management of the micro and chemistry groups at AFL. Kim has been with AFL for 8 years and her expertise is a great addition to the Nutritional Services team.

Terri O'Brien, Nutrition Specialist

TerriO@afltexas.com

With a degree in Food & Nutrition, Terri has more than 20 years experience in the nutrition services field, and has run the ESHA Research, Genesis R&D program for AFL during those years. Other work experience includes work in the vendor product quality control group at AFL, sales/HR training, and nutrition/website consulting work for a major US food conglomerate. She is an excellent contributor to the AFL nutrition services team.